

WALLPLATE Round Cap CORTEN

WALLPLATE plates are a range of high thickness aluminium alloy containers, with the quality standards of industrial products.

The product is complete with adapter for two-module recessed boxes, sealing gaskets and the natural surface finish gives an aesthetic value typical of industrial components.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

|                       |                                                        |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| Standard              | IEC/EN 602208IEC/EN 60670-1                        |
| Material              | Aluminum alloy                                         |
| Treatment             | Die-cast aluminum(protective treatment on request) |
| Protection grade IP   | IP20 - IP35                                            |
| Impact resistance     | IK10                                                   |
| Isolation class       | I                                                      |
| Storage temperature   | -50°C - +90°C                                          |
| Operating temperature | -40°C - +90°C                                          |

CT82-Corten

Dimensions (mm)
Ø 96 (with screws Ø 114) - H 24

Modules not included

